

Youth Planning Board Member -- Job Description

Position Summary

The Academy for the Love of Learning invites youth to join us in designing and planning #TheLearning Spirit Youth Summit, a five-day, youth-led learning experience and ecosystem of co-creation. To do so, the Academy is forming a Youth Planning Board. The Board will help imagine, create, and plan #TheLearningSpirit Youth Summit.

Youth Planning Board members are community-minded, imaginative, and creative young people that envision co-creating the change they wish to see in the world, whether that change is micro- or macro-level change.

Youth Planning Board members will participate in monthly meetings (one to three times a month) to plan, design, and create the Youth Summit. All Youth Planning Board members will co-create the agenda, activities, and learning questions for each Board meeting. The Board meeting topics, learning questions, and activities will inform the design of the Youth Summit. The Academy will support this process by providing a theme and outcome guide for each Board meeting.

The Youth Planning Board will also invite and select guest workshop facilitators, review workshop session proposals, and review Youth Summit applications. The Youth Planning Board will continue to meet after the inaugural Youth Summit in order to reflect on learnings and prepare for the next Youth Summit.

The Youth Planning Board experience will also serve as a reflection point for the Academy in co-creating and imagining with young people.

The Youth Summit will be an in-person event.

About the Academy for the Love of Learning

The Academy is a world-class organization in the field of learning and education. Over the past twenty years, it has designed and implemented curricula and dozens of programs for teachers, educators, social leaders, artists, elder communities, and others. Today the Academy is focused on magnifying its impact through collective learning with our learning partners, local community, and online and in-person audiences.

The Academy is now entering into a new vision for its work in the world. By sharing and evolving our pedagogy, the Academy aims to co-create new visions of learning with young people, adults, and youth-driven organizations. The Academy's renewed and refocused vision seeks to deepen the impact of our mission, awakening a natural love of learning in people of all ages, through collective learning and co-creative reimagining of how and where learning happens.
